DEFENDANT VICTORY ENERGY OPERATIONS, LLC'S
PROPOSED VOIR DIRE

Defendant Victory Energy Operations, LLC ("VEO") respectfully requests that the Court allow it to ask the following questions in its examination of prospective jurors, pursuant to Rule 47(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

Proposed Voir Dire

In the trial of this matter, each side is entitled to the fair, unbiased, and impartial consideration of each juror. Each juror must make his or her own independent judgment. If there is any fact or reason why any of you might be biased in any way, it is your duty to disclose it now.

If your response to any of the following questions is in the affirmative, please indicate that by raising your hand.

Background

- Q. What is your educational background and what jobs have you held since high school?
- Q: Do you have any background in engineering?
- Q. What about any kind of technical field?

- Q. Have you ever had any ideas or inventions that you sought to patent or copyright?
- Q. Can you tell us about that?
- Q. Was your experience positive or negative?
- Q. Have you ever believed that someone took an idea of yours?
- Q. Can you tell us about that?
- Q. Have you ever been a plaintiff in a lawsuit?
- Q. Have you ever thought about suing someone but did not?

Trade Secret Questions

- Q. Have you ever heard of the phrase "public domain?"
- Q. Are you aware that the definition of "public domain" is that which is publicly available?
- Q. Do you research things on the internet?
- Q. Have you researched any information on the internet in the last week?

Potential Bias

- Q. Have you or anyone close to you ever had any kind of relationship with Victory Energy Operations, LLC or Indeck Keystone Energy, LLC?

- Q. If so, please explain the general nature of the claim or litigation.
- Q. Does you feel that the matter was satisfactorily disposed of?
- Q. Will the fact that you had been involved in litigation affect your ability to be a fair and impartial juror in this case?
- Q. Are you willing to give the same consideration and justice to both plaintiff and defendant, even though defendant is not a Pennsylvania company?
- Q. Does any prospective juror oppose the jury system of resolving disputes? [If any oppositions are noted, VEO respectfully requests that the court elicit the nature of the prejudice outside the presence of the jury pool.]
- Q. Do you understand that the party bringing the lawsuit and making a claim here, IKE, has the burden of proving its case by a preponderance of the evidence?

- Q. The judge in this case will provide you with the law that you will apply with respect to the claims and defenses in this case. Do you agree with this proposition and would you be willing to follow the court's explanation of the law as provided in its instructions?
- Q. If you should find under the evidence of the law, as the court gives it to you, that defendant, Victory Energy Operations, is not liable, would any of you have difficulty or be reluctant in returning a verdict for the defendant, knowing it could mean that the plaintiff, having suffered an injury, would recover no damages at all.?
- Q. If you should find under the evidence of the law, as the court gives it to you, that plaintiff, Indeck Keystone Energy, met its burden of proof, would you be willing to award plaintiff the entire amount of damages it is entitled to?

- Q. Please state the general nature of the injuries.

Q. Do you believe that your service in a prior trial involving intellectual property, breach of contract, or unfair competition claims will influence your deliberations in this case?

Q. Can you set aside your opinions developed in any prior trial and decide this case solely and exclusively on the evidence and law presented to you in this case?
